

Ed & Cecilia Dalbello – Royal Rangers - Brazil

Ed is an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God.

Ed has a degree in electronics, theology and in 2007 Ed received the title of Doctor of Philosophy in Christian Clinical Counseling.

Ed and Cecilia moved to Georgia, established a business and served as children pastors in Savannah-Ga for five years.

Ed’s passion is “Family Ministry”, to minister to families, marriage seminars, counseling and also reaching out to needy children.

In obedience to God’s call, on 2003 he gave up his business in electronics and a future career as professional counselor to go to a new country, to a new culture, as a missionary.

Ed has published books on the subject of marriage, youth restoration, and several books for children.

Cecilia has a compassion ministry. She loves ministering to the needy and was the Missionettes coordinator for five years in Savannah.

She has a degree in teaching, theology, a degree in Counseling and is working on her Masters in Christian Clinical Counseling.

The Dalbello’s speak English, Spanish and Portuguese. They have two daughters.

Active Ministry - Brazil

Ed and Cecilia are coordinating the translation of the Royal Rangers curriculum into Portuguese since mid 2007 and on 2014 they started the Ranger’s ministry in Brazil that has transformed the lives of thousands of young men and women bringing them to a close relationship with our Savior.

Former Ministry – Argentina

Since 2003 they served in Argentina as the National Coordinator for Child of Hope, former LACC (Latin America Child Care). They ministered to local churches and schools throughout the country with seminars, counseling and workshops.

Dates:

Ed July 19 Cecilia December 29 Anniversary January 11